School Success Plan

David Thompson Secondary School

School District No. 6 (Rocky Mountain) is located on the unceded lands of the Secwépemc and Ktunaxa People, and the chosen home of the Métis People of B.C.

Principal Message -

David Thompson Secondary School is situated on the unceded and crossover territories of the Secwépemc and Ktunaxa People and on the land chosen as home by the Métis Peoples of BC.

School data is collected and reviewed from a number of sources each school year. Report cards are reviewed each term and the Student Learning Surveys are conducted each year for grades 10 and 12. School-based surveys are also used to gather feedback from students, parents and staff; along with other measures to collect information.

Literacy is assessed in a variety of ways including the District Wide Write and CAT-4, along with classroom assessments in grades 8 and 9. Students in grades 10 and 12 write the provincial Literacy Assessment.

In 2021-22, DTSS piloted a grade 8 and 9 Numeracy Assessment. This assessment will be written by all grade 8 and 9 students this year and the results will be reviewed with staff in order to improve the numeracy skills of our students. Grade 10 students will write the provincial Numeracy Assessment and the results used to make improvements.

As a staff, we will continuously review data in staff meetings, department head meetings, school-based teams, and grade level meetings. The analysis of this data will inform how we approach planning for improvement.

We look forward to the challenge outlined in our mission statement: to engage and challenge students to think, to care, and to seize opportunities. Michael S. Hubick

Parent Survey – CORE Review. 100 parent responses to the survey.

We are considering a structure that will enhance student mentorship (older students working with younger students), under the guidance of each teacher on some days. Do you think this is a good idea?

Evidence Narrative

Student surveys conducted were consistent in identifying student sense of belonging to the school and student mental health as a key areas of focus for staff. This was reinforced when our District Student Advisory Council met with district leadership to share the same conclusion. Parents input at the Community Engagement event in the spring of 2022 agreed. Staff reported the same findings. Parents also identified CORE as an effective tool to build students' connection and mental health.

Evidence Narrative

Concept Focus

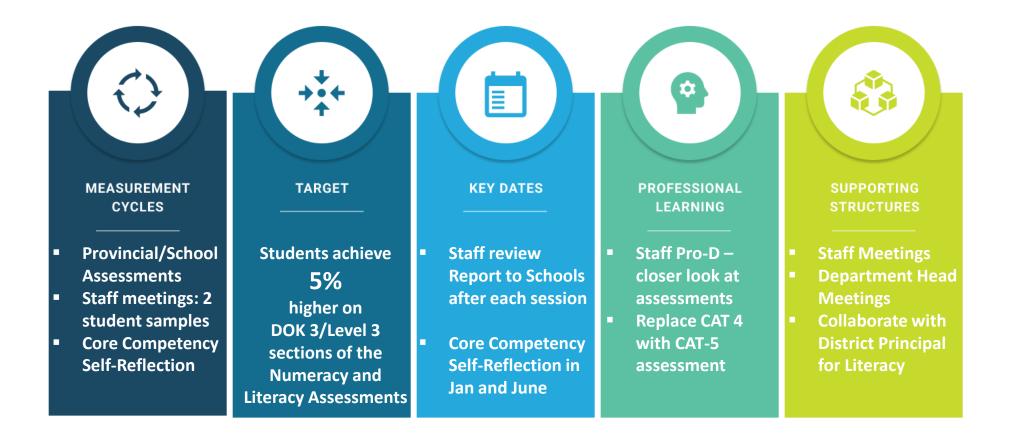

The provincial Literacy and Numeracy Assessments ask students to interpret information, draw conclusions and critically think about data presented in charts, tables, infographics, blogs, social media feeds, and a diverse array of texts across multiple subject areas.

Our students performed slightly below the provincial average in some of these critical thinking aspects of the assessments. Students need to work with infographics and other unique displays of data in all of their courses to better apply their critical thinking skills towards information presented in various forms.

Strategic Inquiry

To what extent will teachers using infographics to teach students to interpret and analyze data, contribute to increased critical thinking skills for students?

Strategic Targets and Measures

Excellence in Teaching and Leadership

Strategic Priority |

Goal

Increase staff knowledge in using Trauma-Informed practices

This is in alignment with the First Peoples Principles of Learning, "learning involves patience and time," "learning involves generational roles and responsibilities," and "learning requires exploration of one's identity."

Grade 12 Student Learning Survey

How would you describe your mental health?

- Staff, students and parents requested more mental health resources to assist students.

Concept Focus

We need to establish a shared understanding about how to create a welcoming, caring and safe school that fosters positive mental health for students.

Trauma-Informed practices and the UBC's Teach Mental Health Literacy offer promising learning opportunities for staff to help build their own and their students' mental health and thus, improve students' ability to self-regulate.

Strategic Inquiry

To what extent will staff report being better able to support student mental health if they participate in structured professional development on Trauma-Informed practices?
